Celebrate the warmth of hugs
NATIONAL HUG DAY
January 21

The morning assembly was conducted by the Social Science Department of MI Training College, Ponnani on 21 January, in connection with National Hug Day. The programme was organised under the Social Science Department

The assembly began with a warm welcome by the Anchor, Fida Fathima (VP). This was followed by a prayer led by Sajeena, invoking peace and harmony. The pledge was administered by Nidha, emphasizing unity and responsibility. A meaningful holy thought was shared by Najma, which inspired the audience with moral values. The session continued with the news reading by Shaneer P, keeping the students informed about current affairs.

The vocabulary enrichment segment was handled by Safvana, introducing new words and their usage. This was followed by the KTET awareness session by Archana, which provided useful information for aspiring teachers.

As the day marked National Hug Day, the anchor briefly explained the significance of the day, emphasizing how hugs symbolize love, care, emotional support, and human connection. The theme conveyed a strong message of spreading warmth, empathy, and positivity among individuals.

The assembly concluded with an inspiring address by Ramitha Miss, who appreciated the efforts of the students and highlighted the importance of emotional well-being and healthy relationships in the academic environment.

The programme came to an end with a vote of thanks, making the assembly informative, engaging, and meaningful.
